

The John Paul II Gospel of Life Scholarship Student Application

The Gospel of Life Foundation was established by Drs. Mick and Nancy Shaughnessy to encourage students to work on behalf of the dignity of human life. This endowment will not only fund scholarships for students who have proven their commitment to life, but will also fund all-school projects that encourage respect for life.

To Qualify:

1. Student must currently be enrolled in the 9th, 10th, or 11th grade at Notre Dame Academy.
2. Student must be passing in all subjects and promotable to the next grade.
3. Student must show demonstrated leadership and involvement in the promotion of Life Club, its' activities, or other projects that promote the value of human life.

To Apply:

1. Student must submit this form with Parent/Guardian signature and all information to the school office by the announced due date.
2. Student must attach an essay (approximately 300 words) about why working to promote human life is important to her and how she has demonstrated leadership in promoting the value of human life.
