NOTRE DAME ACADEMY
Policy for Athletic Support of Fruit Sale

Each and every Notre Dame student that is a member of the Girls' Athletic Association has the following responsibilities to uphold:

- 1. Each single sport athlete is expected to sell a minimum of 15 boxes of fruit; multiple sport athletes are expected to sell 20.
- 2. The Fruit Sale Kick-off day is October 7 upon receiving your packet of information you must show your parents all information.
- 3. Any participating athlete failing to sell her required number of fruit boxes will be assessed $20.00 for every box of fruit not sold. The charge will be collected December 9.
- 4. Fruit Sale money is due Friday December 9, 2011. Any student who does not return their fruit sale money by the December 9, 2011 will not be eligible to take first semester exams.

Students who do not turn in their full amount of fruit money by December 9 are ineligible to take semester exams.

- 5. All fall athletes must follow the same rules as the winter and spring athletes; although, the fruit sale starts after fall season.
- 6. All athletes/members must sign up to help unload the truck upon delivery of the fruit and must sign up to help pass the fruit out on the weekend of December 2-4, 2011

*It is in the best interest of everyone to pull together for this common goal. The athletes are the ones who benefit the most. Coaches, administrators, and parents give endless hours to the program and this is the one way for the athletes to chip in and help!
