She is a good judge of character and possesses foresight as well as caution. Her love of the artistic is very marked. You'll never catch her lacking speed in her shorthand. She is well built though not inclined to a great height and has much ingenuity and forethought. It is her joy of joys to pass a day without being taken for a freshman. She is thoroughly content with reading or listening to "L'Amour Toujours L'Amour". Our idea of an impossibility is for Rose Mary to measure six feet or not to hear her say "I wish you would hurry". Best All Around Girl, CSMC, Quill and Scroll, Press Club, ND Courtiers, Alpha Sigma Delta, Patrol Squad, Gavel staff, cast of Pharaoh's Daughter and Jephtha's Daughter, Better English Club, Orchestra, Handmaids Blessed Sacrament, Librarian, SSC, Latin Cup
1933	Sr. Mary Dorothy Glindmeyer (Dorothy)			Reading, Study Hall Supervision, Tardy Room	1986-1994	"A friend is worth all of the hazards we can run". Dot just can't help getting all hot and bothered about almost everything - even so trifling an item as digging money out of her class for the Missions. In coincidence with her sweet and unassuming personality, her favorite song is Bells of St. Mary . She's got a collection mania, for she collects notes on historical events, poetry and stamps.
1933	Sr. Mary Honora Karrer (Violet/Viola)			Religion, English, Communications, Principal	1954 1966-1970	"Her thoughts are robed in purple, and move majestically." Viola is affectionate and friendly, and is often found looking for the "little flower she saw the other day". The chords of the Bells of Avalon generally are the first that are played as she seats herself at the piano. "Oh! Pat" is the ejaculation she thinks most fitting if she loses a point in centerball.
1933	Sr. Mary Regina Back (Loretta)			Math, Algebra, Librarian	1964-1972	"We grant, although she had much wit, she was very shy of using it." Loret's orderly and systematic qualities and her keen eye for detail stand her in good stead in her favorite position, centerball. She is undemonstrative at all times, except when singing Sunshine .
1933	Sr. Mary Sheila Felix (Florence)			History, English, Piano Lessons	1942-1957 1960-1961	"You have talent my child". Flossy is patient, industrious and good-natured. She spends a lot of her time smiling, but occasionally adds a few giggles. Whenever anyone asks her to sing a song, she says "OK" and starts in on Lullaby of the Leaves . Flossy is also pretty fond of Thursdays, so she can have a game of centerball.
1934	Sr. Mary Josette Wager (Margaret)			Religion, English, Journalism, Speech, Humanities, Gavel, SND Superior	1941-1954 1960-1999	"There isn't anything like happiness, except sacrifice." Maybe it is because of being born in July that Margie has such a charming personality. Margie is very popular with the younger generation, but she makes friends with persons of any age very quickly. She spends her free time entertaining her friends or reading. When Margie makes a mistake, she is terribly sorry and mutters her favorite saying "Patrick Henry". You will find Margie singing In the Valley of the Moon while she is busily doing nothing.

1934	Sr. Mary Valenta Schneidt (Mildred)		Cafeteria	1984-1988
1934	Sr. Mary Verda Meyer (Loretta)		Food, Nutrition, Home Nursing, Home Economics, Health, Religion, Guidance, World History, Dramatics	1941-1957 1960-1965 1973-1995
1936	Sr. Mary Joselle Leising (Mary Frances)		English, Latin	1977-1992	"Her soul beams forth in every shy, clear glance." Mary is one of those charming persons who never seem to lose their temper or become impatient. It is her boast that it takes a great deal to ruffle her feathers. Her favorite pastimes are reading, studying and practicing her music. She is the pride and joy of her teachers and classmates alike, for besides all of her other duties, she still maintains an excellent standing as a scholar.
1936	Sr. Mary Annata Kriege (Rita)		Religion, Sewing, Home Economics, World History, Dramatics, Bookstore Manager, School Leadership	1945-1959 1966-1972	P.N.D. "Mild innocence, what will become thee?" Wee Rita has grown up. She is, as Orlando says of Rosalind, "just as high as my heart". That is, she reaches everyone's heart, with her winning smile, and her gracious lovable manner. Rita is that type of composure which soothes and controls all disturbances, and she is ready for any task that may come her way.
1936	Sr. Mary Merita Kuelenborg (Evelyn)		Biology, Chemistry, Home Nursing, History, Religion, Health, Librarian	1949-1954 1960-1988	P.N.D. "Common sense leads us not far astray". Evelyn is mild, kind, ingenuous and polite, but a little timid, wholly adverse to the least dispute, and devoted to higher things. If Evelyn has the wanderlust, it is always to travel in the right direction; her watchword must be "Excelsior!". And when Evelyn gets near a piano, we're going to have some good music.
1939	Sr. Mary Carleta Rauch (Catherine)		Earth Science, Religion, Physical Science, Latin, Choral Club, Music Lessons, Legion of Mary Moderator	1963-1965 1973-1976	P.N.D. "There's No Substitute for You". Everyone admires Catherine for her sweetness and simplicity. And there isn't any dilly-dallying about her. Already she has taken steps towards the fulfillment of her heart's desire - to be a Sister of Notre Dame. Catherine is an accomplished pianist, and choose music as her favorite art. Keep the music in your heart, Catherine.

" Ruth has a big worry off her mind. She started her to prepare for her vocation, and it has proved to be a splendid one. "Sister Chappie" hopes to teach organ lessons for the rest of her life and devote herself to Christ in this melodious manner. If anyone should ask her if she misses baseball and 'pop' music, Ruth just smiles sweetly and says. "Are you asking me? I enjoy other things in a far better way." Ruth's joy is so genuine that she is living in the fond hope that a number of her classmates will make the same happy venture with their lives. 'You'll never know until you try', says Ruth.
1941	Sr. Mary Loretta Wilkins (Bertha)			Spanish, English	1951-1953	P.N.D Ybk" "A noiseless spring of charity". Handmaid of the Blessed Sacrament, Miraculous Medal Association, Promoter of the League of the Sacred Heart, Kentucky Mission Apostolate, Maryknoll Mission Junior Club, Mission Apostolate, Choral Club, Cast of "Christmas Toy Program", "Crazy Quilt" and "Joan of Arc". Blessed is our cheery little Bertha, for she "hath chosen the better part." Bertha is a very thoughtful young miss, devoted to her studies and her vocation, which is a lofty one. A deep appreciation of good music, plus a lovely voice, not often heard, are two of Bert's most envied gifts. Her pleasant disposition and her sunny Irish smile are some of the things we'll find hard to do without. Whatever she may be - teacher, nurse or missionary - Bert will be a true example of happiness, success and contentment.
1941	Sr. Mary Philip Trauth (Rose)			History, Social Studies	1947-1952	P.N.D. Ybk: "Brilliant in music, Latin and French, Here is a talent that nothing can quench". "The divine gardener, in love with His little Posey, has transplanted her, and placed her under the special protection of Our Lady." Rose excels in all of her studies, but is especially found of music and English. Happy in her vocation of a Bride of Christ, energetic in her studies, with an undercurrent of laughter, Rose will go on winning hearts to our Lord and to herself, as she has won her classmates. May she ever be our "thornless Rose".
