

AN ATHLETE FROM YOUR SCHOOL HAS BEEN NOMINATED FOR LAROSA'S MVP OF THE WEEK

Three nominees have been selected for the most popular high school sports recognition program in the tri-state area, and one of them is from your school! Tell students, teachers and friends to show their school spirit by voting today at www.LaRosasMVP.com.

MVP of the Week will be announced on December 16th, 2014. So spread the word!

Carly Hill

SCHOOL: Highlands High School

SPORT(S): Diving

GRADUATING YEAR: 2015

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: A 3-time NISCA All-American and a varsity diver since the 6th grade, Carly is the defending Kentucky state diving champion. She has won four consecutive regional diving titles. She was the 2013 NKY Diver of the Year and has committed to Louisville.

Abby Thelen

SCHOOL: Notre Dame Academy

SPORT(S): Volleyball

GRADUATING YEAR: 2015

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: A middle blocker for the 31-6 district champs, regional champs and state runners-up, Abby was named Player of the Year by NKY coaches, and 2nd team all-state, plus she was named to the district, region and Kentucky state volleyball all-tournament teams. She has committed to play collegiately at Seton Hall.

Rachel Wichmann

SCHOOL: CHCA

SPORT(S): Volleyball

GRADUATING YEAR: 2015

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Senior middle blocker Rachel Wichmann helped lead the Lady Eagles to the MVC championship. For the season, she had 116 kills, 26 digs and 27 blocks. She was named MVP Scarlet Player of the Year for the 2nd time. Last season she was Cincinnati Div. III-IV Player of the Year.

Vote for your student at www.LaRosasMVP.com
by 11 am next Tuesday!